Chattanooga Bakery, the producers of MoonPie, and Frost Cutlery Company proudly announce an official partnering for licensed products. Not that it takes a genius to deduce (if you now anything about either company) that these two entities eventually had to be mixed together to make a tasty and highly desired product. If gold and diamonds are girls best friend then Frost pocket knives and MoonPies are a Southerner's of all genres. Many flavored analogies could be used to describe this union but we are confident it's a sweet deal not only for us but the consumers and collectors of MoonPie memorabilia.
